

I feel it is my right and the right of satellite radio stations to provide information on weather and traffic. I see no reason why local content should only be provided by typical radio broadcast means. This is an issue of competition and service.

Please allow capitalism to continue in radio.

The FCC should not intercede on competitive grounds.